

I understand that the Consumer Banking Assoc. is seeking to change the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law to allow calls from anyone that I do business with.

If this allowed, I believe it would be grounds for other groups to successfully challenge the law, and it would eventually become totally ineffective.

Please accept this message as my vote against changing the law as it stands.

Thank you for your consideration.        Jake Gumberts